The Best Bars In Chelsea

Drink a martini under a big chandelier, or spend a night out at a disco-themed club.

Chelsea is one of those neighborhoods you're bound to wind up in. Maybe you just got off work somewhere around 23rd Street. Maybe your parents are in town and really want to see The Highline. Or maybe you know people who still go to clubs in Meatpacking and you've agreed to meet them in the general vicinity. In any event, you're going to need a drink beforehand. And probably afterwards as well.

THE SPOTS

Lobby Bar

BAR • CHELSEA

PERFECT FOR: DRINKING GOOD COCKTAILS

$$$ 226 W 23RD ST, NEW YORK >

Located in the newly renovated Hotel Chelsea, Lobby Bar looks like the foyer of a gracefully aging mid-tier palace. The space features couches and armchairs, a long marble bar under a massive chandelier, and a garden room to the side where you can get some sunlight. All of that might sound stuffy, but Lobby Bar is pretty laid-back, and it's one of our favorite spots to drink an extremely strong martini, eat some fries, and catch up with a friend. If you want to grab dinner after your drinks, head next to door to El Quijote.
